

ANTHONINO'S TAVERNA

EST 2003

Anthonino's has been one of the most popular family-owned eateries on "The Hill" in St. Louis since 2003, serving a unique mix of Italian and Greek specialties.

The unique addition of Greek cuisine to our extensive and eclectic menu sets Anthonino's apart from other Italian caterers on The Hill. Influenced by their Italian father and Greek mother, owners (and brothers) Anthony and Rosario Scarato grew up experiencing the best of both cultures.

Everything you will enjoy from Anthonino's has been hand-prepared in our kitchen, locally sourced or imported. Anthonino's always uses the freshest ingredients. As much as possible, we source all our produce from local farms. Anthonino's is perhaps the best known for hand-making St. Louis's favorite – TOASTED RAVIOLI!

Allow our personable and experienced catering team to bring you a taste of "The Hill". With our excellent service, coordination and customization, your event will always be in good hands with the Anthonino's team!
